GOVERNMENT OF ODISHA

HEALTH & FAMILY WELFARE DEPARTMENT

RESOLUTION

The 11th January 2012

SUBJECT—Execution of bond by the candidate prosecuting medical, dental and paramedical courses in Government Institutions of the State.

In order to overcome the dearth of Doctors/Paramedical personnel in the State and to retain the students passing out of Government medical/dental/paramedical institutions who are studying at the cost of State Exchequer, Government after careful consideration have been pleased to introduce a policy for execution of an agreement/undertaking in shape of bond in conformity with the Finance Department Order No. 6875-F., dated the 20th February 1996 with the objective to utilize their services in the greater interest of the State.

2. This Resolution supersedes all resolutions/orders/executive instructions and guidelines issued earlier for the purpose.
